

Gopa Kuteeram Class

Gopa Kuteeram is a structured one-hour class where kids learn east Indian Sanskriti (culture) by Katha Shravanam, Sloka, Bajans and various arts and craft

The term 'Gopa Kuteeram' (Sanskrit language) refers to the play-house of young Lord Krishna and the Gopas, His playmates of Vrindavan. So 'Gopa Kuteeram' signifies a place where children have enormous fun along with and in the presence of the Lord. Gopa Kuteeram is an international children program. It aims to grow each and every child in Bhagavata Dharma which means making spirituality a part of everyday living. Spirituality and daily life are inseparable. Gopa Kuteeram shall aspire to facilitate the growth of the child in the flowering of Humanity & Divinity.

Gopa Kuteeram program is conducted in several cities in the USA, Australia, India, Middle-East, Singapore, Indonesia, Malaysia, and others.

The aim of these programs is to help youngsters strengthen their lives by

- establishing a connection with divinity
- inculcating strong faith and devotion to God
- learning to harness the power of prayers in their lives
- developing a positive attitude of gratitude
- becoming aware of and appreciating the practicality of the Indian way of life and India's ancient wisdom

The program emphasizes Spiritual, Emotional, Intellectual, Physical and Social well-being.

The classes are conducted in a fun, interactive way with lots of discussions, Q & A's, role-plays, stimulating games, quizzes and more.

